From practitioner to teacher

Target audience

This study day will be of interest to nurses and other practitioners who wish to develop their confidence and ability to teach about palliative care.

About this course

Many palliative care practitioners are expected to teach as part of their role. This interactive day will help participants to develop their skills and confidence in creating and delivering teaching sessions that meet learners' needs. Examples will include teaching to develop knowledge and understanding, skills and self-awareness.

Topics will include

- Adult learning
- Developing awareness of a range of creative ways of teaching
- Selecting an approach to match your topic to your group
- Teaching when time is limited
